

Kelly-Creswell 78C Intercom System

Voice activated, hands free transmit and receive communication between chassis operator and rear striping equipment operators.

Typical truck striping setup includes one single ear headset for chassis driver and two dual ear headsets for rear equipment operators.

Headsets reduce noise levels for rear equipment operators.

Voice activated microphones are noise cancelling designed to recognize only voice for clear communication between operators.

Capable of operating up to four headsets simultaneously.

Kelly-Creswell Model 78C Intercom System

Weather proof
headset connections

Volume control on each headset

Belt headset extension
15' & 30' lengths

Model: KC78C Intercom System

Master Control: Volume/Squelch Control, 12 VDC with mounting bracket

Headset Connections: 3 standard weather proof with spring cover

Cables: 3 X 25' hookup headset connections (shielded cable)

Headsets: One single ear head set with voice activated microphone
Two dual ear headsets with voice activated microphone

Options:

Additional headset: Includes cable & headset connection, specify single or dual ear

Belt headset extension: Specify 15" or 30' length

Radio Interface: interface to other mobile radios and cellular phone system

Parts & Service: Testing and repair of all components

Kelly-Creswell
1221 Groop Road
Springfield, Ohio 45504
Phone 937.325.3978
Fax 937.325.7067

Visit us on the web
www.kellycreswell.com
sales@kellycreswell.com
